Purpose of meeting:

This Aide-Mémoire provides advice and talking points (Appendix A) to support you at the Family Violence Sexual Violence (FVSV) Ministerial group meeting. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the approach to progressing the second Action Plan and agree priorities.

The agenda and papers will be provided to your office.

Attendees are Hon Karen Chhour (Chair), Minister for the Prevention of Family Violence and Sexual Violence and Minister for Children; Hon Louise Upston, Minister for Social Development, Minister for Disability Issues and Acting Minister for Women; Hon Paul Goldsmith, Minister of Justice; Hon Mark Mitchell, Minister of Police and Minister for Corrections; Hon Melissa Lee, Minister for Ethnic Communities and Hon Tama Potaka, Minister for Māori Development.

Maree Roberts, Deputy Director-General of Strategy, Policy and Legislation from the Ministry of Health will attend to support you.

Comment:

- This Aide-memoire provides you with advice relating to the following agenda items:
 - Item 1: Discussion on the approach for the next Action Plan
 - Item 2: Update on the Social Investment Agency FVSV Impact Review

Item 1: Discussion on the approach for the next Action Plan

- Minister Chhour is proposing an approach to the second Action Plan that will set out the broad strategic priorities alongside a phased programme of action.

- A phased programme of action is proposed, with an immediate focus s 9(2)(f)(iv), understanding current spend and ensuring that specialist FVSV services are accessible and effective.
- The next phase will build on this and draw on the Impact Review to understand funding, impact and opportunities for reprioritisation.
- The Ministry is supportive of this phased approach.

Item 2: Update on the Social Investment Agency FVSV Impact Review

- The Social Investment Agency (SIA) are continuing their work to understand and evaluate existing FVSV spend, supported by Te Puna Aonui Business Unit. The work aims to understand existing spend and impact and enable Ministers to make informed decisions on reprioritisation and any new investment.
- The Ministry of Health and Health New Zealand will continue to feed in and support this review and work to understand any implications or opportunities for health-related investment or reprioritisation.
